

Supplemental Instructions for High Lift Track

To avoid interference between the window frames on the door and the perimeter weather seal, special high lift dual-radius track has been provided with the door. The general installation method is similar to the method described in Step 11 of the primary installation manual. Please refer to the illustration below for supplemental instruction on installing the dual-radius track.

